

Widow Lake

Widow Lake is a charismatic band with a passion for the energy of rock and the appeal of pop. Hailing from Greenville, SC, the band has been active since 2016, perfecting their sonic formula and reaching out to a broader audience with their tunes.

Their sound could be described as edgy, direct and personal, with close ties to the work of artists the likes of The Beatles, Dire Straits and Red Hot Chili Peppers, just to mention a few. This is music that transcends barriers and genre definition, going for a comprehensive blend of retro influences and modern clarity.

The band features Angela Schaffer on vocals, as well as James Heaton and Matthew Newman, respectively on lead and rhythm guitar. To finish off the line up, Haskell “Hack” Nelson provides a solid bass backbone, while Joe Rossi plays drums with passion and steady grit. This talented combo is the embodiment of edgy rock music, as their songbook is far from the usual cliches, daring to feature songs that most bands wouldn’t chance to attempt!
